

How Can Member Organizations Benefit CFA?

1. Come with a learner's desire and attitude
2. Come with a contributor's desire and attitude
3. Constantly share tools, approaches, and stories with colleagues
4. Serve on CFA committees
5. Show-case best practices from your working environment for ongoing learning among CFA members
6. Consider conducting a regional or national CFA convention with all:
 - a. Your intermediary partners AND/OR
 - b. Your intermediary and community level partners.
7. Offer to become an officer of the association (nominations prior to each spring meeting)
8. Bring resources when you believe they will bless the association and her members.
9. Share the costs (pay the web site fees, pay the meeting facilities fees) etc.
10. Support others as they support you
